In 2007, Melbourne’s Shanaka Fernando was awarded the Australia’s Local Hero Award of his work as the founder of the not-for-profit restaurants, Lentil as Anything.

Shanaka made a speech when he accepted his award. His comments on the meaning of being Australian is interesting.

“I didn’t know the answer to the question of what it means to be Australian until quite recently,” said Shanaka.

“I went out into country Victoria with refugees for a tree planting weekend, and I came into contact with an amazing spirit of community and openness.”

To be Australian is welcoming of others. It is to encourage each other to shine and to reach our full potential.”
