CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Located in Sydney, ACARA is an independent statutory authority established by the Australian Parliament. Its role is to develop an Australian curriculum from F-12, a national assessment program to measure students’ progress, and a national data collection and reporting program to support analysis, evaluation, research and accountability.

With the impending retirement of the inaugural CEO, Dr Peter Hill, we now seek an exceptional individual to lead ACARA in the next phase of its challenging national agenda.

Potential applicants must be able to demonstrate the ability to lead an organisation of this importance and complexity. More specifically, the right candidate will possess the following attributes:

• A record of working collaboratively with and relating effectively to multiple stakeholders.

• A record of leading multi-disciplinary teams and working under pressure to tight schedules.

• Proven ability to achieve outcomes in a politically sensitive environment.

Please obtain information about the position by calling the consultant assisting ACARA, Kathy McLean, of Fish & Nankivell, on 0414 376 698. Applications will close on 27 February. A concurrent search is being conducted.
