

Intercultural Understanding learning continuum

Sub-element	Level 1 Typically, by the end of Foundation Year, students:	Level 2 Typically, by the end of Year 2, students:	Level 3 Typically, by the end of Year 4, students:	Level 4 Typically, by the end of Year 6, students:	Level 5 Typically, by the end of Year 8, students:	Level 6 Typically, by the end of Year 10, students:
Recognising culture and developing respect element
Investigate culture and cultural identity	share ideas about self and belonging with peers	identify and describe the various groups to which they belong and the ways people act and communicate within them	identify and describe variability within and across cultural groups	identify and describe the roles that culture and language play in shaping group and national identities	explain ways that cultural groups and identities change over time and in different contexts	analyse how membership of local, regional, national and international groups shapes identities including their own
Explore and compare cultural knowledge, beliefs and practices	identify, explore and compare culturally diverse activities and objects	describe and compare the way they live with people in other places or times	describe and compare a range of cultural stories, events and artefacts	describe and compare the knowledge, beliefs and practices of various cultural groups in relation to a specific time, event or custom	analyse the dynamic nature of cultural knowledge, beliefs and practices in a range of personal, social and historical contexts	critically analyse the complex and dynamic nature of knowledge, beliefs and practices in a wide range of contexts over time
Develop respect for cultural diversity	discuss ideas about cultural diversity in local contexts	describe ways that diversity presents opportunities for new experiences and understandings	identify and discuss the significance of a range of cultural events, artefacts or stories recognised in the school, community or nation	discuss opportunities that cultural diversity offers within Australia and the Asia-Pacific region	understand the importance of maintaining and celebrating cultural traditions for the development of personal, group and national identities	understand the importance of mutual respect in promoting cultural exchange and collaboration in an interconnected world
Interacting and empathising with others element
Communicate across cultures	recognise that people use different languages to communicate	describe how the use of words and body language in interactions may have different meanings for various cultural groups	recognise there are similarities and differences in the ways people communicate, both within and across cultural groups	identify factors that contribute to understanding in intercultural communication and discuss some strategies to avoid misunderstanding	explore ways that culture shapes the use of language in a wide range of contexts	analyse the complex relationship between language, thought and context to understand and enhance communication
Consider and develop multiple perspectives	express their opinions and listen to the opinions of others in given situations	express their own perspectives on familiar topics and texts, and identify the perspectives of others	identify and describe shared perspectives within and across various cultural groups	explain perspectives that differ to expand their understanding of an issue	assess diverse perspectives and the assumptions on which they are based	present a balanced view on issues where conflicting views cannot easily be resolved
Empathise with others	imagine and describe their own feelings if they were put in someone else's place	imagine and describe the feelings of others in familiar situations	imagine and describe the feelings of others in a range of contexts	imagine and describe the situations of others in local, national and global contexts	imagine and describe the feelings and motivations of people in challenging situations	recognise the effect that empathising with others has on their own feelings, motivations and actions

Intercultural Understanding learning continuum

Sub-element	Level 1 Typically, by the end of Foundation Year, students:	Level 2 Typically, by the end of Year 2, students:	Level 3 Typically, by the end of Year 4, students:	Level 4 Typically, by the end of Year 6, students:	Level 5 Typically, by the end of Year 8, students:	Level 6 Typically, by the end of Year 10, students:
Reflecting on intercultural experiences and taking responsibility element
Reflect on intercultural experiences	identify and describe memorable intercultural experiences	identify and describe what they have learnt about others from intercultural encounters and culturally diverse texts	identify and describe what they have learnt about themselves and others from real, virtual and vicarious intercultural experiences	explain what and how they have learnt from a wide range of intercultural interactions and experiences	reflect critically on the representation of various cultural groups in texts and the media and how they respond	reflect critically on the effect of intercultural experiences on their own attitudes and beliefs and those of others
Challenge stereotypes and prejudices	identify examples of the acceptance and inclusion of others in given situations	discuss the effects of acceptance and inclusion in familiar situations	explain the dangers of making generalisations about individuals and groups	explain the impact of stereotypes and prejudices on individuals and groups within Australia	identify and challenge stereotypes and prejudices in the representation of group, national and regional identities	critique the use of stereotypes and prejudices in texts and issues concerning specific cultural groups at national, regional and global levels
Mediate cultural difference	identify similarities and differences between themselves and their peers	recognise that cultural differences may affect understanding between people	identify ways of reaching understanding between culturally diverse groups	discuss ways of reconciling differing cultural values and perspectives in addressing common concerns	identify and address challenging issues in ways that respect cultural diversity and the right of all to be heard	recognise the challenges and benefits of living and working in a culturally diverse society and the role that cultural mediation plays in learning to live together