(a) School data include students who cross State and Territory boundaries to attend school. In the case of the ACT this causes the proportion of 6 to 15-year-olds enrolled in school to exceed 100%. Includes children enrolled full-time or part-time. Jervis Bay enrolments are included with ACT; Norfolk Island enrolments are included with NSW. 'Other territory' enrolments are excluded.

(b) Estimates for the total population are sourced from ABS, Cat. No. 3201.0, Population by Age and Sex, 30 June 2010. The Australia total includes 'other territories' including Jervis Bay and Norfolk Island. However, Jervis Bay and Norfolk Island are excluded from ACT and NSW totals. Therefore, State and Territory Estimated Resident Population numbers will not add to Australia totals.

(b) Junior secondary is the years from commencement of secondary school to Year 10, including ungraded secondary.

(d) Students attending special schools are allocated to either primary or secondary school on the basis of grade or school level where identified. Where the grade or school level is not identified, students are allocated to primary or secondary level of education according to the typical age level in each State or Territory. See Glossary for definition of special schools.

(e) In 2007 Queensland introduced a Pre-Year 1 grade. This change may affect the 2007 comparisons of school, student and staff data with previous years.

(f) The structure of schooling in the Northern Territory changed in 2008 with Year 7 schooling now considered part of secondary education. This change will affect some comparisons of school, student and staff data from 2008 onwards with previous years.

- (a) International students were excluded. However, international students are included in the population statistics if they are living in Australia for 12 out of 16 months. School student counts are inclusive of full-fee-paying overseas students (FFPOS) whose 'Australian resident' status may be ambiguous.
- (b) Where possible, the data were based on students as at 31 August 2010. If this was not possible, the closest date to 31 August 2010 was selected. The number of school students is as at 6 August 2010, the number of apprentices and trainees is as at 30 September 2010 and the number of total persons is as at 30 June 2010. The number of higher education students was based on students enrolled in at least one unit of study with a census date between 1 June and 30 September 2010 (inclusive). Most of these higher education students were enrolled in units with a census date of 31 August 2010, as this was the census date for semester two subjects. A wider period was selected for higher education students in this current publication compared with the 2009 version of the publication to account for those higher education students with a unit of study census date earlier or later than August.
- (c) School-based apprentices and trainees include students who undertook at least one module/unit of competency in a school-based apprenticeship or traineeship.
- (d) Derived by subtracting the total number of VET in Schools students (excluding those with an overseas postal address) as at 31 August 2010 in the VET in Schools Collection from the total number of school students in the National Schools Statistics Collection.
- (e) There may be a small overlap in statistics between the higher education sector and other sectors, which could not be removed. For example, a student enrolled in higher education and undertaking an apprenticeship or traineeship at the same time will be counted twice.
- (f) Trade occupations are defined as all major occupation group 3 Technicians and trades workers (ANZSCO 1st edition). This figure excludes trade apprentices and trainees who are attending school or undertaking a school-based apprenticeship or located outside Australia.
- (g) Non-trade occupations are defined as all ANZSCO 1st edition occupations with the exception of technicians and trades workers (i.e. major groups 1–2 and 4–8). This figure excludes non-trade apprentices and trainees who are attending school or undertaking a school-based apprenticeship or located outside Australia.
- (h) This figure excludes students who are attending school, undertaking a VET in Schools subject or undertaking an apprenticeship or traineeship.

- (a) The large increase in the number of VET in Schools students between 2007 and 2008 can be partly attributed to the introduction of reporting requirements for the Queensland Certificate of Education. This entails all students in Queensland to be identified by a Learner Unique Identifier. As a result, the identification of school-based training activity is now considerably easier, as both registered training organisations (RTOs) and students are more aware and accountable for the reporting of training activity.
- (b) From 2009, data from Tasmania may not be comparable with previous years due to changes in training arrangements implemented in the Tasmania Tomorrow initiatives. These initiatives included senior secondary colleges and TAFE being replaced by the Tasmanian Academy, the Tasmanian Polytechnic and the Skills Institute.
- (c) Data from the Northern Territory in 2010 include enrolments that contribute to the successful completion of the Northern Territory Certificate of Education and Training.
- (d) The National VET in Schools Collection contains students where sex was not reported. These unknown data have not been separately reported whereas the total includes all students, including those with unknown status. Hence, some figures may not sum to the total
- (e) 'Other' includes education not elsewhere classified, statements of attainment not identifiable by level, bridging and enabling courses, plus other courses that do not lead to a qualification under the AQF.
- (f) 'School-based apprentices and trainees' include students who undertook at least one module/unit of competency in a school-based apprenticeship or traineeship. The calculation for school-based apprentices and trainees was slightly modified to be consistent with the reporting of apprentices and trainees in the National VET Provider Collection. Data have been backdated for the years prior to 2010 and as a result, the data may not match the number of school-based apprentices and trainees reported previously.

Note on Data on school based-apprentices and trainees and other VET in Schools Programs in Table 19 do not match data in Table 20 because the statistics in Table 19 only include students as at 31 August 2010 whereas the VET in Schools data in Table 20 are based on all students who enrolled in VET in Schools programs during the 2010 calendar year.

Notes: CI = Confidence Interval

The percentages reported in this table include 95 per cent confidence intervals. Confidence intervals are a way of expressing the degree of sampling and measurement error associated with survey estimates. For example, an estimate of 80 with a 95% confidence interval of ±2 means that if the total population were surveyed rather than a sample, there is a 95 per cent chance that the result would lie between 78 and 82.

Prior to 2009 all persons in very remote areas were excluded from the Survey of Education and Work (SEW). Very remote areas represent about two per cent of the total Australian and 20 per cent of the Northern Territory population. From 2009 onwards SEW has a slightly wider scope. It includes persons in very remote areas but continues to exclude persons in Indigenous communities in very remote areas. The current exclusion has only a minor impact on national estimates or estimates by State/Territory except for the Northern Territory where such persons account for about 15 per cent of the population.

Prior to 2009 all persons in very remote areas were excluded from the Survey of Education and Work (SEW). Very remote areas represent about two per cent of the total Australian and 20 per cent of the Northern Territory population. From 2009 onwards SEW has a slightly wider scope. The percentages reported in this table include 95 per cent confidence intervals. Confidence intervals are a way of expressing the degree of sampling and measurement error associated with survey estimates. For example, an estimate of 80 with a 95% confidence interval of ±2 means that if the total population were surveyed rather than a sample, there is a 95 per cent chance that the result would lie between 78 and 82.

Full-time participation is defined as participation in full-time education or training or full-time work, or a combination of both part-time education or training and part-time work.

Prior to 2009 all persons in very remote areas were excluded from the Survey of Education and Work (SEW). Very remote areas represent about two per cent of the total Australian and 20 per cent of the Northern Territory population. From 2009 onwards SEW has a slightly wider scope. It includes persons in very remote areas but continues to exclude persons in Indigenous communities in very remote areas. The current exclusion has only a minor impact on national estimates or estimates by State/Territory except for the Northern Territory where such persons account for about 15 per cent of the population.

<sup>* =</sup> estimate has a relative standard error of 25% to 50% and should be used with caution

<sup>** =</sup> estimate has a relative standard error greater than 50% and is considered too unreliable for general use

Prior to 2009 all persons in very remote areas were excluded from the Survey of Education and Work (SEW). Notes: CI = Confidence Interval

The percentages reported in this table include 95 per cent confidence intervals. Confidence intervals are a way of expressing the degree of sampling and measurement error associated with survey estimates. For example, an estimate of 80 with a 95% confidence interval of ±2 means that if the total population were surveyed rather than a sample, there is a 95 per cent chance that the result would lie between 78 and 82.

Prior to 2009 all persons in very remote areas were excluded from the Survey of Education and Work (SEW). Very remote areas represent about two per cent of the total Australian and 20 per cent of the Northern Territory population. From 2009 onwards SEW has a slightly wider scope. It includes persons in very remote areas but continues to exclude persons in Indigenous communities in very remote areas. The current exclusion has only a minor impact on national estimates or estimates by State/Territory except for the Northern Territory where such persons account for about 15 per cent of the population.

Note: This table differs from that in the Report on Government Services, which disaggregates students in remote and very remote areas. This table combines data for remote and very remote students in the single category 'remote'.

- (a) Completion rates are estimated by calculating the number of students who meet the requirements of a Year 12 certificate or equivalent expressed as a percentage of the potential Year 12 population. The potential Year 12 population is an estimate of a single year age group which could have attended Year 12 that year, calculated as the estimated resident population aged 15 to 19 divided by five.
- (b) Definitions are based on the agreed MCEECDYA Geographic Location Classification.
- (c) Data for Victoria include students completing the Victorian Certificate of Education (VCE) but exclude students completing the Victorian Certificate of Applied Learning (VCAL).
- (d) In 2009 the Tasmanian Qualifications Authority introduced a new Tasmanian Certificate of Education (TCE). This requires students to meet a set of standards. In previous years the TCE was awarded to students completing at least one senior secondary course. This change represents a break in the time series.
- (e) Darwin is included in the NT Provincial zone.
- (f) The ACT is included in the Metropolitan zone.

(a) There are several factors influencing the reason why the proportion of students relative to the population can exceed 100%. These factors may include cross-border enrolments and migration (interstate/international). In particular for the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander population, analysis has shown this population has a higher dual-enrolment occurrence across multiple schools, government and non-government sectors and jurisdictions, which would impact on the percentages represented. Data includes children enrolled full-time or part-time. Jervis Bay enrolments are included with ACT; Norfolk Island enrolments are included with NSW. 'Other territory' enrolments are excluded.

Sources: ABS, Cat. No. 4221.0, Schools, Australia, 2010, data cube NSSC Table 42b: Full-time and part-time students 2006–2010; ABS, Cat. No. 3201.0, Population by Age and Sex, Australian States and Territories, June 2010; ABS, Cat. No. 3238.0, Experimental Estimates and Projections, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Australians 1091–2021

(b) Estimates for the total population are sourced from ABS, Cat. No. 3201.0, Population by Age and Sex, 30 June 2010. The Australia total includes 'other territories' including Jervis Bay and Norfolk Island. However, Jervis Bay and Norfolk Island are excluded from ACT and NSW totals. Therefore, State and Territory Estimated Resident Population numbers will not add to Australia totals.

(c) Non-Indigenous estimates are available for census years only. In the intervening years, Indigenous population figures are derived from assumptions about past and future levels of fertility, mortality and migration. In the absence of non-Indigenous population figures for these years, it is possible to derive denominators for calculating non-Indigenous rates by subtracting the Indigenous population from the total population. Such figures have a degree of uncertainty and should be used with caution, particularly as the time from the base year of the projection series increases. Information on non-sampling error that may affect the population data is available from ABS, Cat. No. 3201.0, Population by Age and Sex, Australian States and Territories, June 2010, Quality Declaration Summary. There is also some variability in the reporting of Indigenous status across jurisdictional education providers, particularly in relation to 'not stated' responses. This may result in some under-reporting of Indigenous status; see Appendix 2: Collection of Indigenous Status of Students, in ABS, Cat. No. 4221.0, Schools, Australia, 2009.

Primary education comprises a pre-Year 1 grade followed by Years 1 to 6 in NSW, Vic., Tas., NT and ACT. In Qld, SA and WA, primary education comprises a pre-Year 1 grade followed by Years 1 to 7. (a)

Junior secondary is the years from commencement of secondary school to Year 10, including ungraded secondary. (b)

Senior secondary includes Years 11 and 12. (c)

(e) (f)

Students attending special schools are allocated to either primary or secondary school on the basis of grade or school level where identified. Where the grade or school level is not identified, students are allocated to primary or secondary level of education according to the typical age level in each State or Territory. See Glossary for definition of special schools. (d)

In 2007 Queensland introduced a pre-Year 1 grade. This change may affect comparisons of school, student and staff data with previous years.

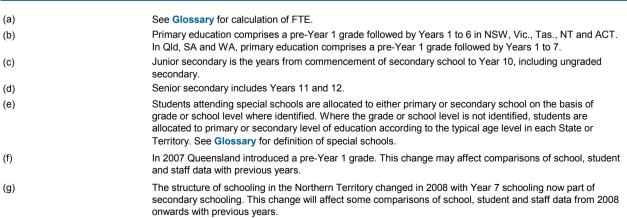

The structure of schooling in the Northern Territory changed in 2008 with Year 7 schooling now part of secondary schooling. This change will affect some comparisons of school, student and staff data from 2008 onwards with previous years.

Note: Components may not add to totals due to rounding.

(a) See Glossary for details of calculation of FTE.

(b) Students attending special schools are allocated to either primary or secondary school on the basis of grade or school level where identified. Where the grade or school level is not identified, students are allocated to primary or secondary level of education according to the typical age level in each State or Territory. See Glossary for definition of special schools.

(c) Primary education comprises a pre-Year 1 grade followed by Years 1–6 in NSW, Vic., Tas., NT and ACT. In Old, SA and WA, primary education comprises a pre-Year 1 grade followed by Years 1–7.

(d) Junior secondary comprises Years 7–10 in NSW, Vic., Tas., NT and ACT and Years 8–10 in Qld, SA and WA. Includes ungraded secondary.

(e) Senior secondary includes Years 11 and 12.

Notes:

Apparent grade progression rates measure the number of full-time school students in a designated year level of education as a percentage of their respective cohort group in the previous calendar year (the base year). Ungraded students not included.

Care should be taken when interpreting these rates since a range of factors affecting the calculation are not taken into account, such as students repeating a year of schooling, changes to part-time and full-time attendance patterns, movements between schools and systems or States/Territories and net changes to a school or system's population. These factors may account for apparent grade progression rates exceeding 100%.

Components may not add due to rounding.

Percentage point gap calculations are based on unrounded data.

Issues that may affect comparability over time can be found in the Explanatory Notes of the source publication.

The above apparent grade progression rates are not published in ABS, Cat. No. 4221.0, Schools, Australia, 2010. They can, however, be derived using full-time student counts that are included in that publication.

The above apparent grade progression rates reflect single year increments of the apparent retention rate concept published in ABS, Cat. No. 4221.0, Schools, Australia, 2010. The above apparent grade progression rates do not rely on population data, unlike the progression rates published in ABS, Cat. No. 4221.0, Schools, Australia, 2010.

Retention

Table 46

Comparative Indigenous and non-Indigenous apparent retention rates and the percentage point gap between Indigenous and non-Indigenous apparent retention rates, Australia, 2006–10 (per cent)

Indigenous	40.1	42.9	47.2	45.4	47.2
Non-Indigenous	76.0	75.6	75.6	77.3	79.4
Gap (percentage points)	35.9	32.7	28.4	31.9	32.2

Notes:

The apparent retention rate measures the number of full-time school students in a designated level/year of education as a percentage of their respective cohort group in a base year. The base year is the first year of secondary school – Year 7 in NSW, Victoria, Tasmania and the ACT; Year 8 in Queensland, South Australia and Western Australia. In the Northern Territory Year 7 became part of secondary schooling in 2008 but for Year 7/8 to Year 10 and Year 7/8 to Year 12 retention rates in 2008, 2009 and 2010, Year 8 was still the base year. Ungraded students not included.

Factors that may affect apparent retention rates at the national level include international migration, students repeating a year of education, students changing between full-time and part-time study and age requirements for participation in education. These factors may account for apparent retention rates exceeding 100%.

Apparent retention rates for Indigenous students can be affected by the disposition to identify as Indigenous over time.

Issues that may affect comparability over time can be found in the Explanatory Notes of the source publication.

Non-Indigenous	73.9	81.5	83.8	82.6	80.7	73.0	69.3	91.4

The apparent retention rate measures the number of full-time school students in a designated level/year of education as a percentage of their respective cohort group in a base year. In the Northern Territory Year 7 became part of secondary schooling in 2008 but for Year 7/8 to Year 10 and Year 7/8 to Year 12 retention rates in 2010 Year 8 was still the base year. Ungraded students not included.

Apparent retention rates for Indigenous students can be inflated by an increased propensity to identify as Indigenous over time.

Caution should be taken in interpreting the data for apparent retention rates at the State and Territory level which can be inflated by a net increase in interstate migration. Small numbers of Indigenous students can also affect results from the State and Territory level and may produce apparent variations from year to year that may not accurately reflect the long-term trend.

Issues that may affect comparability over time can be found in the Explanatory Notes of the source publication.

Salary related expenses include notional payroll tax for WA and the ACT, as these jurisdictions are exempted from paying payroll tax.

 $\label{lem:non-salary costs} \ \text{Include other operating expenses, grants and subsidies and depreciation.}$

A notional user cost of capital based on 8% of 'total written down value of capital assets as at 30 June 2010' is applied to all jurisdictions.

Users wishing to publish this data should provide suitable explanatory notes and be aware that the data do not represent total government expenditure on school-level education. They specifically exclude items such as:

- Commonwealth direct payments to parents and/or students, e.g. AUSTUDY
- preschools and TAFE establishments
- sinking fund payments and interests on Commonwealth loans
- teacher housing and student hostel provisions
- $\, \mbox{funds}$  raised by schools, school councils or community organisations.

Includes debt servicing of loans for capital and operating purposes.

Capital expenditure excludes loan principal repayments.

Expenditure of system offices is allocated across the schools in proportion to enrolments.

Where figures have been rounded, discrepancies may occur between the sums of component items and totals.

2009 and 2010 expenditure figures for Australian Government grants to schools, and capital expenditures by schools have increased due to funding from the Australian Government 'Building the Education Revolution' program.

Expenditure in respect to a certain program year can be incurred in subsequent years.

Non-government data are unable to be separated into Catholic and independent affiliations.

Sources: Data are extracted from the Final Budget Outcome (FBO). The non-government capital grants figure of $138.268 m is sourced from Australian Government DEEWR.

(b) The Trade Training Centres in Schools Program operates as a 'deemed' National Partnership through 'Overarching Funding Agreements' with all government and non-government education authorities. It is anticipated that a formal National Partnership will be negotiated and implemented from early 2013.

Notes: Components may not add to totals due to rounding.

Expenditure in respect to a certain program year can be incurred in subsequent years.

National Partnership payments incorporate recurrent and capital elements. Digital Education Revolution and Trade Training Centres in Schools are capital funded.

Splits between government and non-government expenditures are not supplied by DEEWR. The splits are provided by the States and Territories.

Sources: Data are extracted from the 2009–10 Final Budget Outcome (FBO). The FBO does not contain a split between government and non-government allocation for the Smarter Schools National Partnership expenditure. This table uses data from the 2012 Report on Government Services (ROGS) to provide an estimate of that split. Some splits have also been provided directly by the States and Territories. There is a small discrepancy in the Literacy and Numeracy NP expenditure line between the FBO and ROGS but it is not material. The non-government capital grants flour of $138.268 m is sourced from Australian Government DEEWR.

(b) The Trade Training Centres in Schools Program operates as a 'deemed' National Partnership through 'Overarching Funding Agreements' with all government and non-government education authorities. It is anticipated that a formal National Partnership will be negotiated and implemented from early 2013.
